

I support the NJ Do not Call List, because as a working person, I hate to be going home and have to handle calls for things I don't want and I don't care. Since I selected not to receive these kind of phone calls I feel that if the above is overturned it will overstep my freedom of choice not to listen to something that I don't want to. If I need something, I can choose to go to the store to get it. It's illegal to cross someone's property without authority or flight over or listen in, so it should be for calling someone to sell a product if they choose not to get calls.
